

Dear Parents and Carers,

This week, Class 1 had their trip into Liskeard. They had a tour and a workshop in the museum; they also had time to visit Stuart House and see some more historical evidence. A fabulous time was had by all, and they returned to school super excited about everything they had seen.

Yeti Visuals were in school last Friday, gathering audio and visual promotional footage so that we can update our website. The children were amazing. I was so proud of every single one. They made the team feel welcome and partook in all their activities with so much enthusiasm – I cannot wait to see the outcomes and share them with you all.

Class 2 have been thinking about poetry this week. We have been learning 'The Crocodile' by Lewis Carroll and we will perform it in assembly on Friday. We spent time thinking about the poems language choices and considering its rhyme scheme. Everyone loved it!

Homework menus have been sent home, and I have also uploaded versions onto the school website. Please have a look at the suggestions posted. Should the children wish to share their work in school, they absolutely can. We look forward to seeing it and awarding dojo points for hard work!

Next week will see the clubs start again. Wednesday is changing to 'Mindfulness' which will include calm colouring and Thursday is gardening with Alicia from Looe Valley Plants. They will be 50p a session and can be paid on parent pay. I'm looking forward to both!

Enjoy the long weekend,

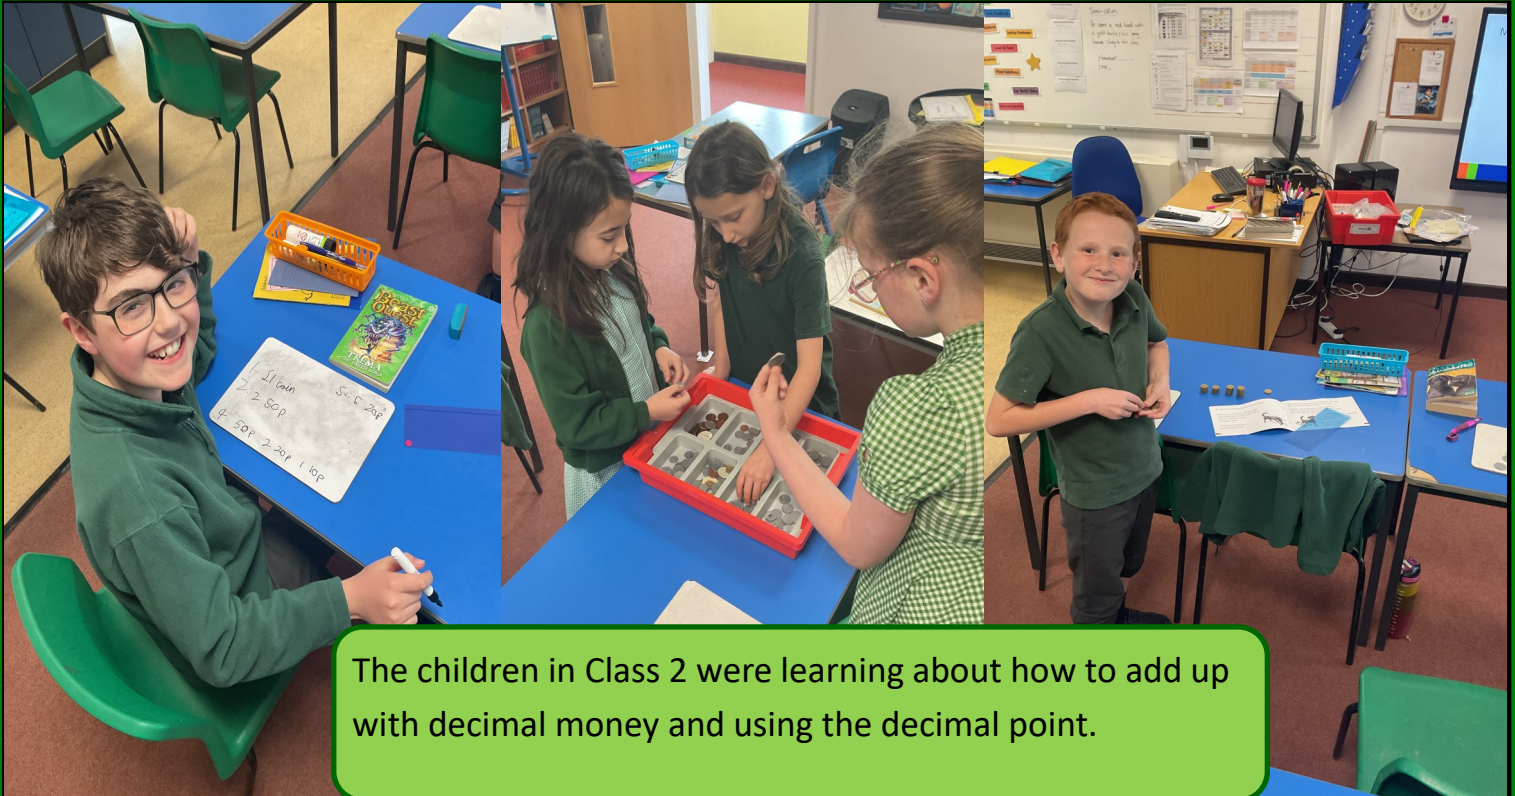

Mrs Cummings
Head of School

The children in Class 1 had a trip to Liskeard Museum and Stuart House to learn about how the shops and the town centre had changed over the years.

The children in Class 2 were learning about how to add up with decimal money and using the decimal point.
